

HOW TO PREPARE FOR AND SUCCEED IN EUROPEAN UNION TESTS AND SELECTION PROCESSES

Renouveau & Démocratie

The Union for Staff of the European Institutions

Table of contents

|   |   |
|---|---|
| Introduction, President of Renouveau & Démocratie | 5 |
| Preface by the authors                            | 6 |

Introduction to the EPSO competitions 7 - 23

- I. The objectives of the selection procedure
- II. The evaluation of competencies
- III. The stages of the competition
- IV. A selection procedure in one calendar year
- V. Defining one's professional profile
- VI. The application

The Tests

|                                       |           |
|---------------------------------------|-----------|
| I. Numerical reasoning                | 24 - 37   |
| II. Verbal reasoning                  | 38 - 52   |
| III. Abstract reasoning               | 53 - 62   |
| IV. Situational judgment              | 63 - 67   |
| V. Accuracy and Precision             | 68 - 71   |
| VI. Prioritising and Organising       | 72 - 75   |
| VII. Language comprehension           | 76 - 77   |
| VIII. Case study                      | 78 - 83   |
| IX. Oral presentation                 | 84 - 92   |
| X. Structured interview               | 93 - 99   |
| XI. Structured interview in the field | 100 - 102 |
| XII. Group exercise                   | 103 - 106 |

|                                      |           |
|--------------------------------------|-----------|
| XIII. E-tray                         | 107 - 109 |
| XIV. Practical Test (MS Word/ Excel) | 110 - 111 |
| XV. Workbook                         | 112 - 213 |
| XVI. Solutions                       | 214 - 226 |